Most Councils offer free booked street side waste collections but there are generally only available on set dates four times per year. Check with your local council to find out future dates for these collections or ask if you can book a collection.

Tenants living in the City of Sydney Council area or the Inner West Council suburbs of Dulwich Hill, Lewisham, Marrickville, Newtown Petersham, St Peters, Stanmore, Sydenham, and Tempe can book a Council collection to pick up mattresses, white goods and general household waste generally within 7 days.

You can book a collection each week for several weeks if you have a lot of material to be disposed of.

Please try and book collections as soon as you are know your likely move out date or you can ask your housing officer to make a booking for you.
